

ILS SAILING – REGATTA REPORT

DATE: May 21-22, 2022 in Houston, TX
EVENT: 2022 ISSA Baker Team Race National Championship
RESULTS: ILS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS: FULL RESULTS HERE

Immaculata La Salle becomes the first team from South Florida to win the prestigious Baker Trophy for Team Race National Championship and only the second team from Florida ever to do so. The competition for the National Championship for Baker High School National Championship in team racing was held in Houston, TX this past weekend. Twelve teams qualified from their respective districts around the country for the National Championship representing over 600 high schools sailing programs.

A full round robin format was completed on the first day of competition with each team sailing against the other 11 schools for a total of 66 races. Immaculata La Salle ended the day on top with 11 wins and only 1 loss. The finals format was a Gold round of the top four teams and La Salle finished that round 2-1 for a final record of 12-2. In team racing, each team sails 3 boats against 3 boats from another high school.

This was Immaculata La Salle's first appearance in the National Championship, and the competition was top notch with schools from California, Maryland, Virginia, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Texas, and Michigan. Congratulations to Immaculata LaSalle High School sailors: Justin Callahan, Mitchell Callahan, Umi Noritake, Danny Riano, Brianna Ross, Caroline Caudron, Holland Ramos and Jadin Gonzalez.
